

United States Department of the Interior
OFFICE OF THE SPECIAL TRUSTEE FOR AMERICAN INDIANS

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

POSITION: Records Management Specialist ANNOUNCEMENT NUMBER: OST-03-073
GS-0301-12/13

OPENING DATE: June 23, 2003
CLOSING DATE: July 11, 2003

FULL PERFORMANCE LEVEL: GS-13
AREA OF CONSIDERATION: Government-wide

SALARY: GS-12: $56,463 - $73,403 PA
GS-13: $67,143 - $87,289 PA

LOCATION: Office of the Special Trustee for American Indians, Office of Trust Records, Division of Records Management Operations, Branch of Records Management Field Operations, Ft Snelling, Minnesota

CONTACT TELEPHONE NUMBER: 505-816-1021

WHO MAY APPLY: Current Federal employees occupying Career or Career-Conditional appointments, permanent employees in the Excepted Service who are entitled to Indian Preference, former Federal employees with reinstatement eligibility, individuals who are eligible for reemployment under Agency Career Transition Assistance Program (CTAP) or Interagency Career Transition Assistance Program (ICTAP), and veterans who are preference eligibles or who have been separated from the armed forces under honorable conditions after 3 years or more of continuous active service (documentation of eligibility must be submitted with the initial application).

INDIAN PREFERENCE POLICY: In accordance with the Indian Reorganization Act of 1934 (25 USC 472), when filling vacancies by promotion, reassignment, initial appointment, transfer, or reinstatement, priority in selection will be given to Indian candidates who present proof of eligibility for Indian preference. Verification of Indian Preference Form (BIA-4432) must be provided with the application of a candidate who claims Indian preference unless the tribe has made a specific waiver. Consideration can only be given to non-Indian applicants (status or reinstatement) in the absence of qualified Indian Preference eligibles.

This position has known promotion potential, and therefore, a subsequent career promotion is permissible.

Relocation expenses will be paid.

STATEMENT OF DUTIES: The position is supervised by the Branch of Records Management Field Operations. The mission of the Office of Trust Records (OTR) is two-fold: (1) the development and implementation of improved policies, programs, systems, and services to support the Department of Interior's (DOI) Indian trust responsibilities; and (2) reform of the Department-wide Indian Records Management programs. Incumbent serves as a Records Management Specialist within the Branch of Records Management Field Operations as the OTR liaison to local Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) offices for the purposes of coordinating the Indian trust records management activities in those locations. This includes disseminating guidance and information on records management to those offices and ensuring that the Indian trust records located in the local BIA offices are maintained in accordance with applicable National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), DOI, OST, OTR, and BIA records management regulations, policies, and procedures. Identifies and provides appropriate training and technical assistance, including proper maintenance of Indian trust records in an office at the Regional and Field level to staff. Performs on-site evaluations and develops corrective action plans to improve internal controls to strengthen the local Indian trust records management program. This position requires frequent travel.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS:

Applicants must meet the qualification requirements contained in the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) Qualification Standards for General Schedule (GS) Positions. All qualification requirements and time-in-grade requirements (Federal employees) must be met within 30 calendar days after the closing date of this announcement in order to receive consideration for this position. Applicants' qualifications will be evaluated solely on the information submitted by them in their applications.

The experience requirement for this position is one year of specialized experience equivalent to the next lower grade level. Specialized experience is experience that is directly related to the position being filled and which has equipped the candidate with the particular knowledge, abilities, and skills to successfully perform the duties of the position.

KNOWLEDGE, ABILITIES, SKILLS, AND OTHER CHARACTERISTICS (KASOCs):

Applicants should address the following factors, in a narrative form, on a separate sheet of paper. This supplemental information will be the principal basis for determining whether or not an applicant is highly qualified for this position. Applicants may expand upon the information that is provided in their application and, should consider appropriate work experience, outside activities, awards, training, and education for each of the items listed below.

1. Knowledge of the trust relationship between the Federal government, Indian Tribes, and Indian trust organizations and operations to effectively carry out the Department of Interior's trust responsibilities to Indian tribes and people.
2. Knowledge of regulatory and statutory requirements associated with information resource management and records management processes involved in the life cycle of records.
3. Knowledge of administrative skills and practices relating to a wide range of analytical techniques to evaluate effectiveness of proposed/existing systems, procedures, and practices; problem solving identification and resolution techniques to provide sound recommendations on trust records management.
4. Ability to research, analyze, and apply policies, procedures, regulations, and statutes in order to provide records management technical assistance to Federal agencies, tribes, and tribal organizations.
5. Ability to provide written and oral briefings to senior management officials of Federal agencies, tribes, and tribal organizations.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Individuals who have special priority selection rights under the Agency CTAP or the ICTAP must be well qualified for the position to receive consideration for special priority selection. CTAP and ICTAP eligibles will be considered well qualified if they meet the following: OPM qualification standards for the position; all selective factors, where applicable; special qualifying conditions that OPM has approved for the position; are physically qualified with reasonable accommodation, where appropriate, to satisfactorily perform the duties of the position upon entry; and are rated by the organization at least at the middle level of a three-level rating system on all quality ranking factors.

Federal employees seeking CTAP or ICTAP eligibility must submit proof that they meet the requirements of 5 CFR 330.605 (a) for CTAP, or 5 CFR 330.704 (a) for ICTAP. This includes a copy of the Agency notice, which establishes the applicant's eligibility for the program, a copy of their most recent performance rating, and a copy of their most recent SF-50 noting current position, grade level, and duty location. Please annotate your application to reflect that you are applying as a CTAP/ICTAP eligible.

This is not a Testing Designated Position.

5 USC 3303, Hatch Act Amendments of 1993, bars Executive Branch Agencies from accepting or considering prohibited political recommendations for Federal jobs. Any such recommendations received will be returned to the sender. Federal employees who request such a recommendation may be subject to disciplinary action.

Other Qualifications Related to this Job: Courses (title and year), relevant skills (e.g., other languages, computer skills, mechanical skills, typing speed), and current professional certificates and licenses (identify issuing authority and date). You may also note any job related honors, awards, and special accomplishments, but DO NOT send documents (e.g., letters of commendation, newspaper clippings).

Senior Executive Service recruitment only: Provide copy of Candidate Development Program Certificate, if applicable.

Unless otherwise stated elsewhere in this announcement, applications will be accepted from individuals with competitive status, with Indian Preference, from severely handicapped individuals (regardless of competitive status), from Veterans Readjustment Appointment (VRA) eligibles (through GS-11) and veterans with compensable disability of 30% or more, and others eligible for appointment under special appointing authorities. Veterans who are preference eligibles or who have been separated from the armed forces under honorable conditions after 3 years or more of continuous active service may apply. Documentation of eligibility must be submitted with the initial application. Please indicate if you are applying under one of these authorities and submit appropriate documentation (e.g., DD 214; Standard Form 15; required proof of entitlement such as the Veterans Administration letter, etc.)

A background security investigation will be required for all new hires. Appointment will be subject to the applicant's successful completion of a background security investigation and favorable adjudication. Failure to successfully meet these requirements will be grounds for termination.

As a condition of employment, male applicants born after December 31, 1959, must certify that they have registered with the Selective Service System, or are exempt from having to do so under Selective Service law.

U.S. citizenship is required.

All new employees of the Office of the Special Trustee for American Indians are asked to identify a financial institution for direct deposit of pay.

All Federal employees are required to serve an initial probationary/trial period. Failure to complete the probationary/trial period successfully can result in your separation from Federal service.

If you are selected for a Supervisory or Managerial position, you must serve a probationary period. Failure to complete the probationary period successfully can result in return to your former position, or to a position of no lower grade and pay than the one that you left to accept the Supervisory or Managerial position.

Your application contains information subject to the Privacy Act (P.L. 93-579, 5 USC 552a). The information is used to determine qualifications for employment, and is authorized under Title 5 of the U.S. Code, Sections 3302 and 3361.

In accordance with 18 U.S.C. 1719 and 39 U.S.C. 3201 SEQ., applications will not be accepted from applicants using franked Government envelopes, or postage-paid agency envelopes or metered mail.

The Department of the Interior is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Within the scope of Indian Preference, selection for positions will be made solely on the basis of merit, fitness and qualifications without regard to race, gender, sexual orientation, color, religion, age, marital status, national origin, non-disqualifying handicap conditions, or any other non-merit factor.

This Agency provides reasonable accommodation to applicants with disabilities. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the Agency. The decision on granting reasonable accommodation will be on a case-by-case basis.
